RUMORED AUSTRIA-HUNGARY WILL SUE FOR PEACE

IMMENSE LOSSES OF AUSTRIA MAY DRIVE HER TO SEEK PEACE

Petrograd, Sept. 10. Austria [illegible] sue for peace as a result of [illegible] terrific defeats she has suffered in Galicia, according to semi-official reports in circulation here.

It is said that the Austrian-Hungarian government is disgruntled over Germany's failure to [illegible] more troops into Galicia and [illegible] threatened with internal [illegible] will seek the best terms possible.

It was officially stated today [illegible] fighting still continues in western Galicia with the Russians pressing steadily upon the Austrians who are slowly falling back [illegible] Rawa along the river Lubac[illegible].

The same announcement declares that the German troops [illegible] attempted to cooperate with the Austrians in the invasion of Russian Poland were being driven [illegible] on the western bank of the Vistula.

General Ruzsky reported to the general staff today that he had captured the entire 15th division of the Austrian army, 12000 men, together with 41 guns, 150 officers, including General Kralleck, division commander.

[illegible] discussing the announcement that German troops are being [illegible] by the Russians along the west bank of the Vistula, the military expert of the Moscow [illegible] says today:

"[illegible] Austria is disposed of [illegible] will immediately begin a [illegible] advance on a front of [illegible] miles wide that will sweep [illegible] tidal wave across the German frontier. The key to the situation is about Krakow [illegible] the Austrians are making [illegible] desperate struggle to prevent a [illegible] movement. This is the [illegible] of an [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] that means annihilation [illegible] the fall of Grodek brings [illegible] Russians in good position to [illegible] Austrian rear."

Enormous Losses of Austrians

London, Eng., Sept. 10. A correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph [illegible] sends the following [illegible] from Rome:

"[illegible] message from Vienna [illegible] it is officially admitted [illegible] [illegible] lost [illegible] in the recent Galician [illegible] one-fourth of its [illegible] [illegible]."

PEACE PACT SIGNED BY [illegible] NATIONS

[illegible] Sept. 10. [illegible] peace pact was [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] have [illegible] [illegible] United States [illegible] [illegible] of the United [illegible] [illegible].

Tax Put On Freight; War Bill Completed

Washington, Sept. 10. Democrats of the Ways and Means Committee today completed the war revenue tax bill providing for a tax of 3 per cent on all freight transportation, an increase of 50 cents on beer and 20 cents a gallon on all domestic wines. This will net an estimated revenue of $107,000,000 per year. The tax on freight was agreed to after a conference with the President who had expressed opposition to it.

HEROIC FIGHT MADE BY BRITISH AGAINST 4 GERMAN ARMY CORPS

London, Eng., Sept. 9. Many English breakfasts went untasted this morning, while the people read the graphic account of Field Marshal Sir John French, of the heroic fight made by the British expeditionary force to keep from being annihilated. Like a wild cat pursued by hounds the British forces backed stubbornly towards the river Oise constantly showing its teeth, but realizes that it must attain the river or perish. Gen. French's frank confession has fallen like a bomb shell on the English public, who up to the present time have not been permitted to know how hard pressed their army has been.

On August 26th the British forces according to their commander, faced the bulk and strength of four German army corps and were in danger of being surrounded and destroyed. The heroic stand of Gen. Smith at Dorrien on the British left, undoubtedly saved the day. On this day the British stood alone, even the French cavalry on account of the exhaustion of their horses, being unable to cover their retreat.

Great comfort is derived from this report as their troops never lost their morale, though sorely pressed.

The feeling of optimism which has prevailed in England during the last 24 hours has had only one cloud. This was the report of the wreck of the steamer Oceanic.

Exultant messages from Petrograd and the admission of the minister from Vienna indicate that the long series of military [illegible] [illegible] the history of the dual monarchy is about to be capped with an unparalleled defeat which may not only open the road to Berlin, but bring Austria to sue for peace.

The armies in the west seemed as if pausing to watch the fateful [illegible] in Galicia, the outcome of which may have repercussions of [illegible] on the plans of the invaders in the western theatre of war as well as upon the allies themselves [illegible].

The news from Belgium indicates that the Germans are preparing for eventualities by rushing reinforcements southward. The first definite indication of this movement [illegible] in a dispatch from Belgium which indicated that the German force which has been waiting outside of Ghent for provisions, has left suddenly in a southeasterly direction.

[illegible] of the United [illegible] hopefully [illegible] [illegible] the Russians [illegible] in the eastern theatre [illegible] has acquired, has surprised even the military experts. [illegible] of the Russian [illegible] has been so speedy that the German divisions on the Vistula are [illegible] able to arrive [illegible] to assist the Austrians.

The Germans are marching south toward Poland to assist the Austrians, but before this aid can be given they must cross the Vistula river.

OCCUPATION OF ALSACE BY THE FRENCH

Bordeaux, Sept. 10. That the French are re-occupying all of upper Alsace was admitted at the war office today. After the withdrawal of the forces around Belfort, French troops have crossed the frontier and are preparing to occupy the territory from which they were driven by the Germans. The latter have retreated to Mulhausen and are acting entirely on the defensive. The war office is entirely satisfied with the situation. It is hoped that the stay of the capital here will be very short.

INACTIVITY OF FLEET IS SUSPICIOUS

Rome, Italy, Sept. 10. The newspaper Giornale D'Italia, in remarking that the Anglo-French fleet in the Adriatic has never displayed energetic action, advances the supposition that England and France whose relations with Austria are traditionally friendly, are supposed stalling the Hapsburg monarchy with the idea of inducing her to come to terms separately from Germany, despite the triple alliance, thus isolating Berlin.

BRITISH TO FIGHT UNTIL VERY END

Washington, Sept. 10—Great Britain is determined not to make peace until she has decisively defeated Germany. This sentiment has been conveyed to President Wilson in dispatches from Ambassador Page at London.

RUINS OF LIEGE FORTS

(By Karl Von Weigand)

Liege, via Aix la Chapelle and The Hague delayed by the British censor, Sept. 10. The battle forts of Liege, for days the admiration of the entire civilized world, because of their heroic defense and because in them are the tombs of thousands of brave men, once representing man's greatest ingenuity as a defensive position, they are today great ruins of broken concrete and twisted steel. Deep in the ruins are the bodies of many of the defenders, as few survived the fire of the deadly German guns.

I was permitted to inspect the ruins of the various forts. No one survived the terrible rain of explosive from the two 42 centimeter guns which are the latest product of the Krupp foundry.

That Liege was unable to hold out at all, was due entirely to the failure of the German commander to have these guns brought to the front. The guns were mounted five miles away, yet so accurate had the Germans located the forts that not a shot missed its mark. They dropped repeatedly on the 12 foot turrets that project only 2 feet from the ground.

One shot went through a ten foot wall of solid concrete into a chamber, where it exploded, killing 150 men. There is also much ammunition in two of the forts, although they are a mass of ruins.

One looks like an extinct crater of a volcano. Three of the 42 centimeter shells drove through 12 feet of concrete and earth. When one of them exploded it set off the magazine. Huge blocks of cement were thrown a great distance and the chilled steel turrets of the forts are twisted like tin.

"Some of the bodies were recovered and buried but others cannot be reached."

Big Liner Wrecked On Scotland Coast

London, Sept. 10. Details of the destruction of the White Star liner Oceanic which has been converted into a cruiser were withheld by the British government today. The official announcement given out last night said that the vessel had been wrecked on the north coast of Scotland and would be a total loss though the officers and crew were saved. Silence was also maintained at the office of James Parton, European manager of the White Star line. Mr. Parton showed great surprise when he was asked for details of the disaster. The Oceanic was taken over by the British government for war purposes on Aug. 10.

England Calls For Half Million Men

London, Eng., Sept. 10. Premier Asquith today asked parliament to increase the size of the regular army, authorizing the addition of 500,000 men. The forces will be added to the various departments of the military establishment, artillery, cavalry and infantry.

The request of the premier was [illegible] [illegible] tion that all of England's resources would be used in carrying to a successful termination the war with Germany. In the [illegible] [illegible] are forced [illegible] back for more [illegible].

This suggestion was approved and the recruiting was so successful that [illegible] 170,000 men had joined [illegible] the total [illegible] [illegible] less than [illegible] planned [illegible] today would [illegible] the total [illegible] up to [illegible] men.

RUSSIANS MARCHING ON BERLIN

London, Sept. 10. The Rome correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Co. reports that dispatches received in the Italian capital from Vienna state that the advance guard of the Russian center is marching towards Berlin, that the Russians have [illegible] Silesia and that the capture of Breslau is imminent.

NO DUM-DUMS

Bordeaux, Sept. 10. The French foreign office issued a denial that French troops have used [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the captured fort of Longwy.

PATHFINDER SUNK BY A TORPEDO

London, Sept. 10. It is stated that the British cruiser Pathfinder which was destroyed in the North Sea, Sept. 5, supposedly by contact with a mine, was [illegible] [illegible] torpedo. This information is released by the official information bureau.

REINFORCED ARMIES ABOUT PARIS RENEW TERRIBLE STRUGGLE

Paris, France, Sept. 10—"The allies are forcing the Germans back at every point along the line," Gen. Gallieni announced this afternoon. It was the only official information of the decisive battle of the present war as far as the French are concerned. The Germans are admittedly hard pressed by the British in the north and the German right under Gen. Kluck has suffered greatly.

As a result the Germans have been pushed across the Marne and are now being driven north towards Belgium. In the meantime another British force recently landed has raided the German line of communication. Gen. Gallieni says the French center is also advancing. The great German assault designed to crush it has failed, he said, and the French are everywhere on the offensive.

Paris, Sept. 10.—German reinforcements have arrived at the German center and right and it was reported that the Kaiser's army had lost ground. The main efforts on each day has been directed against the center over a stretch of 50 miles. The fighting is unusually severe.

The British-French left has been heavily reinforced by troops withdrawn from the defenses of Paris. All dispatches bore out the earlier news that the Germans are nearly exhausted. Even their French troops failed to display the spirit of their earlier conflict.

London, Sept. 10.—German reinforcements are being rushed into France from Belgium to support the right wing of the Kaiser's army which has been pushed back 25 miles by the British allies. A dispatch from Ostend says that reinforcements are advancing in three columns and that there are 60,000 of them.

A dispatch from Ostend says:

"The third corp of German reservists has passed Oudenarde and Gramont on its way to reinforce the right wing of the German army in France which has suffered an important check."

Official statements given out by the French war office in Paris and Bordeaux say that the position of the allied army is satisfactory.

Washington, Sept. 10—The French embassy today received the following dispatch from Bordeaux bearing yesterday's date:

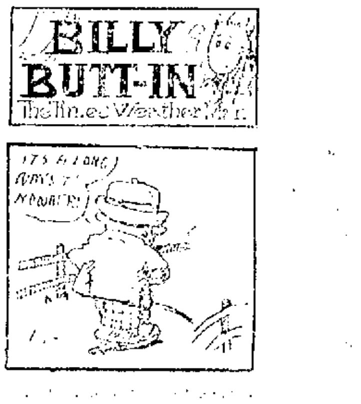
"The right wing of the Germans has been withdrawn north of the Petit Morin though fighting on the right and has been sharply attacked on the right bank of the Ourcq. Our troops are making progress at Sezanne. A sharp fight is taking place in our center with alternation of progress and recession.

The situation continues to be favorable at Nancy and at Vosges.

Paris, Sept. 10. The left end of the curved German battle line which on Sept. 7th extended [illegible] the segment of a wide circle from Meaux to Vitry le Francois about 100 miles east of Paris, was hit by the English expeditionary [illegible] yesterday and forced to double back for a distance of 20 miles. This outcome of the fighting has aroused great satisfaction in Paris. It is assumed that it has resulted in a second degree of anxiety for the German general staff concerning its line of communications. In spite of the continued secrecy of the French official communication on the progress of these segments it is evident that the action of yesterday and the day before constituted one of the hottest battles of the war. Yesterday [illegible] a large number of [illegible] [illegible] of Paris [illegible] east. It is [illegible] now that yesterday's action was one of the most costly [illegible] [illegible].

The Germans [illegible] [illegible] into a [illegible] position [illegible] they have [illegible] reinforcements [illegible] [illegible] forced ahead [illegible] official reports fail to indicate [illegible] the Germans have retired it is believed that they have withdrawn to the northeast in the direction of Epernay, a town about 70 miles from Paris.

The British troops have crossed the river Marne and are now in a position to follow up their successes. They have been menacing the German [illegible] their turning movements. This [illegible] they have the help of the French forces left on the [illegible] the river Ourcq that was only [illegible] [illegible].



[illegible] matter [illegible] [illegible] I know just what I want and what I want is for New [illegible] [illegible] summer."

Ohio: Fair and warmer tonight. Friday increasing cloudiness. Probably showers tonight.

Kentucky: Warmer tonight and Friday; increasing cloudiness Friday.

Columbus, O., Sept. 10. Miss Hazel Thompson, of Port William, Clinton county, is an exceptional girl. She is but 16, is from the country and has just been declared the first prize winner in the state-wide canning and baking contest and sewing contest at the state fair. The experts who judged the exhibits say she secured almost a perfect score on each of the articles she entered.

"Every girl should know how to [illegible], can fruit and sew," said Miss Thompson after having been informed that she had carried off the honors for the whole state in the first domestic science contest of the kind to be held at the fair. There were scores of competitors and she came in an easy winner. Miss Thompson believes that [illegible] proved when domestic science is taught in all schools.

Miss Thompson is a pupil in the Port William Centralized schools, of which Professor Harry [illegible] is superintendent. She has been an excellent student in all her studies, and says that since agricultural and other vocational subjects have been introduced school work is much more interesting than formerly. Her school was one of the first to begin the teaching of domestic science.

The annual state rifle shoot for the Ohio National Guard will be held at Camp Perry, Sept. 20-27. An order for this has just been issued from the adjutant general's office. Colonel E. W. How[illegible], of Toledo, who commands the Sixth regiment, will be in [illegible] of the shoot. His [illegible] executive officer [illegible] Colonel [illegible], of Dayton, [illegible] assistant [illegible] Major A. [illegible], of Cincinnati, [illegible] of the medical department [illegible] detailed as surgeon for the shoot. There will be a detail of sixteen range officers. Every regiment and smaller organization of the Guard will send a team to participate in the shoot.

The court of appeals had just given the teachers and their union a victory by sustaining the order of the common pleas court which enjoined the school authorities from dismissing the instigators of the union movement. This virtually ties the hands of the board of education and it is threatened that the superintendent of schools will be instantly cited for contempt of court unless he restores the dismissed teachers to the pay roll.

Unless the supreme court of Ohio interferes, it looks as if the people of Jackson county will continue to enjoy their little electric railroad which the Hocking Valley recently threatened to put out of service. The Hocking Valley operates the electric line and avers it is a losing venture. Its threat to cease the service caused an appeal to be made by patrons to the state civil service commission. The commission sustained the appeal and ordered the continued operation of the electric line. The Hocking Valley demanded a reopening of the case but has just been turned down. Now it threatens an appeal to the supreme court.

There is one divorce for every seven marriages in Ohio. Statistics filed with the secretary of state show this. During the past year 6,712 mismated couples were granted divorces. The number of marriages for that period was 19,582. Divorces are on the increase in the Buckeye state. According to the official figures, there were [illegible] more divorces during the past year than in the preceding year. The statistical year closes June 30, and at its close this year there were 1,647 such suits pending. The number pending at the close of the preceding year was [illegible]. There were 9,516 divorce suits brought during the past year. The total number before the courts for consideration during the year was 15,[illegible]. There were 2,271 refused or dismissed.

This time, according to the story as printed, the Duke, who had previously saved the life of his friend, Captain Grenfell, in action, was carrying military dispatches near Lille to Sir John French, whose aide he is, when he was attacked by Uhlans. They showered the Duke's motor with lead. One bullet struck the Duke's companion, who lay dying. As his companion collapsed, he tried to struggle to his feet to salute. ### Columbia Feature Today

Columbia today presents a four reel special feature entitled "The Kissing Cup". This picture was produced in England by the "Hepworth's", who are recognized as England's foremost film producers, and in its production nothing was spared in the way of expense to make it a most wonderful and interesting picture. The story is one of love and intrigue and the climax comes in the result of the great English Derby, which is won by "Kissing Cup". Don't miss this great four reel special tonight.

Look at that big bargain program for tomorrow. First, we have "Little Mary Pickford" in an unusually beautiful story, "Love Among the Roses"; "Hearst Selig" weekly of current events, then you can see "Love & Flames", one of the richest comedies you ever saw, and as an added attraction, Manager Tynes announces that he has secured 25 authentic pictures of the Great European war; this first set of European war pictures show the scenes in Vienna after the assassination of Franz Ferdinand, the crown prince of Austria, whose assassination was the real cause of the awful war now involving all of the countries of Europe.

At The Scenic

The big feature at the Scenic tonight is "Tricked By A Vampire," a powerful story of love and political intrigue in three parts. It's a stirring story with a powerful appeal, and should be seen by every lover of good drama.

In addition to the big feature, "His Brand," a powerful Western drama featuring Lois Weber and Philip Smalley will also be shown, while "Love, Roses and Trousers," a screamingly funny comedy, will wind up this excellent program of five reels of pictures. Be sure you get to see them.

Tomorrow's feature is "The Renunciation," a powerful Western drama, in two parts, featuring Edna Payne and Bob Frazer.

THEATRICAL

The Sun

All readers are familiar with Lord Tennyson's beautiful poem, "Enoch Arden", but they haven't all seen Maurice Downey & Co., in the Irish Classic written by the well known sketch writer, Fred J. Beaman entitled "An Irish Arden.

Pat O'Brien joined the Union army in '62, leaving a young bride of a few months. She received word through a newspaper clipping of his death on the battlefield of Chickamauga. About this time a son had been born to them, and during her severe illness word had been received by Pat that his wife was dead. In the meantime, Pat's supposed widow had married "Simon Culpepper", a soldier of the Southern army, and they had been living together in her northern home when Pat appears on the scene after nearly fifty years. He visits his old neighborhood and "happens to drop in at the home of the "Culpeppers" for rest and a drink of water. Pat and Simon have some vigorous scraps over the respective merits of the north and south, and during their conversation Pat finds that his wife did not die, but was now the wife of the "rebel" Culpepper. Pat has a scene with his former wife—learns that a boy had been born to them that he was supposed to have been killed and like the "Enoch Arden" of Tennyson's poem returns to find his wife married, and that his son had died when ten years of age. Pat is much distressed over the loss of his wife and son, but manfully remains a stranger to the end, and with a last fond kiss of the picture of his boy walks slowly out and leaves his wife still ignorant of the fact that her first husband is still living. The little playlet is replete with unctuous humor and the ending makes it one of vaudeville's greatest successes.

Four other high class acts and pictures will complete one of the best bills of the season.

PRESIDENT WILL REPLY TO EMPEROR

Washington, Sept. 10.—President Wilson announced today that he would reply to Emperor William's message which he said contained nothing that could be constructed as a desire for peace negotiation. The President told callers that he had received no official word from any of the warring nations about peace. He said talk about peace was still "in the air."

THE TEST THAT TELLS

Years ago this Portsmouth citizen told in a public statement, the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills. The statement is now confirmed; the testimony complete. A SECOND STATEMENT.

Several years later Mrs. [illegible] said: "Since [illegible] Doan's Kidney Pills [illegible] [illegible] I have used [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] had anything [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

FIGHTERS CONDEMN AIR FIGHTING.

The survivors of the noted cavalry band of John Morgan, the same that took the hurried trip through this state only to be captured near Buffington Island, held an annual reunion at Olesplan Springs last week. The members of this band were noted for their bravery and fighting qualities, for their dash and ability to stand the hardships and exposures of war. A remarkable feature of their meeting was the unanimous condemnation of the bomb droppers, the bomb users in the European war. They classed the throwing of bombs down from the clouds upon defenseless women and children and non combatants as plain murder and wholly without the rules of warfare and a disgrace to modern civilization.

There is something that the average native American cannot get clear in his mind and that is how the alien can cheer the king or the emperor whose oppressive rule drove him from his native land in search of liberty and a chance to live like a human being.

Those folks who have thought all along that the imported articles was superior to that "Made in America," may now have a chance to do without [illegible] worth using it only [illegible]

A RUNNING TREAT.

It would be worth all the worry and possible risk to go over to the [illegible] regiment of those Dahomeys fighting with the [illegible] when the Germans get at them just right [illegible] they are uniformed up like they were when upon [illegible] at the World's Fair. If you will remember they wore [illegible] of grass about their waists and a horrible [illegible] buttoned up the back.

The Czar [illegible] congratulated for having time to change the name of his capital [illegible] he moves it, which was not generally permitted by the Kaiser. The Czar is lucky.

Just a [illegible] years ago we lost our capital, but we did not lose [illegible]. A few European countries doubtless would like [illegible] to repeat itself in their case, if the Germans would only consent.

If, as most everybody predicts, the rule of the people springs out of the [illegible] of war it will not have been in vain.

While [illegible] for peace in the old world wouldn't it be wise to offer up supplication for the blessings we enjoy and that the peace here among us may remain everlasting now and forever?

The war tax doubtless will not be wholly psychological in its effect.

CANADIANS WANT TO BE ANNEXED

Earl Parsell, of the Peavy [illegible] Co., who just returned from Canada, says that one of the most surprising things that came under his observation, was the resentment [illegible] and Canadians show against England for entering the European war.

Mr. Parsell [illegible] playing golf [illegible] millionaires who [illegible] the mother country for [illegible] warring nations and for drafting young men from Canada to join her forces in France. They openly expressed the wish that the United States annex the Dominion. They felt that an intelligent people like the [illegible] are supposed to be, should not have taken up arms against such a progressive nation as the Germans, Mr. Parsell asserts.

FOR FOURTH TIME J. B. FROSTICK IS CONVICTED IN MAYOR'S COURT

Regular attendants at police court are wondering who is going to be the first to tire in the [illegible] game of see-saw being played by Mayor Frese and Attorney William R. Sprague in dealing with the case of J. B. Frostick, [illegible] [illegible]

Attorney Sprague gave notice that he would file a motion for a new trial for the fourth time and the mayor intimated that he could have as many trials as he wanted. The attorney is eager to get the case in common pleas court, but he can not do so as long as the mayor does not refuse to grant a new trial. The mayor [illegible] that the case is one [illegible] his final jurisdiction, [illegible] refuses [illegible] attorney [illegible]

ODDS AND ENDS

The War

We have read about Scutari until our eyes are weak and lame,
We have read about Przemysl and the Russo-Austria game,
We have read a hundred columns
on the battles near old Liege,
We have read about the Belgians and the way they checked the siege,
We have read about Reims, Nancy
and Koblenz, Aix La Chapelle,
And other funny sounding towns too numerous to tell.
We have read about old Innsbruck, Landeck, Meran, Namur, Prague,
We have read of Stuttgart, Strassburg, Munich, Luneville and the Hague;
We've digested facts and figures
till our mind is scrambled, quite,
And we see the columns marching in our dreams most every night.
We have sat and pondered over every paper we could get,
But we don't know a golduren thing about the trouble yet.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, [illegible], etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Stockdale, O., Sept. 7, 1914.
Dear Dolly:—I want to ask you two questions. Does Officer Bonzo use powder and paint on his face? Also polish on his hair and mustache or is that his real mug? Is he married or single? Honest Dolly he is the prettiest cop on the force. What do you say?
LONESOME.

I'll say he is. That's his real "mug." I don't think he "makes-up," but of course I can't say for sure whether he does or not. He's married, so no chance for you.

Dear Dolly—Please tell me how I can overcome bashfulness?
DIPPY.

Don't think about your own feelings, Dippy, but think how you can make others comfortable and happy.

Dear Miss Wise—A boy friend of mine became angry with me some time ago and I do not know his reason for being angry. Can you suggest a way in which I can find out?
MABEL.

Sometime when you see him you might ask him what's wrong. Don't be too anxious, however. He may simply be in one of [illegible] grouchy sort [illegible] sorts of things. Better [illegible] alone until he gets over his pouting spell.

Dear Dolly—Will peroxide whiten the face and does it harm the skin?
DAISY.

Peroxide will make the skin yellow and wrinkled if used persistently. At first it whitens the skin.

Dear Miss Wise—Please put in tonight's Times what will take gum off of a blue serge dress. Also, what is good to wash white clothes in so as to make it pure white and yet not ruin the clothes and oblige.
YOUR FRIEND.

Gasoline will take the chewing gum off. Clear water, not muddy, with plenty of soap and [illegible] low grease will make clothes white.

A little borax in the water will also whiten them. [illegible] is good to put in the water if you boil the clothes.

Dear Dolly—What are the duties of a dining room girl, [illegible] at a boarding house. Also the duties of a chambermaid [illegible]?
A DAILY READER.

A dining room girl usually has to set the table, wait on patrons, clear the table, brush up the dining room and probably help in the kitchen. As a chambermaid your duties would be to make beds, keep the bedrooms clean, attend to the bed linen and make yourself generally useful on the bedroom floors.

Dear Miss Wise:—Recently I learned that I have a cousin living out West. Now I would like to write her a letter, but of course do not know what to say as neither of us has seen the other. Can you give me a few pointers on what to say to her?
WANT TO KNOW.

Write her a pleasant, affectionate letter telling all [illegible] in her as a [illegible] relative, and [illegible] to [illegible] with her. [illegible] and [illegible] else [illegible] from you [illegible] you can write a letter that [illegible] from her [illegible]

Sick Women Attention

Is it possible there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, which proves beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other one medicine in the world?

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for women—and every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true. Here are three never before published:

From Mrs. S. T. Richmond, Providence, R. I.

Providence, R. I.—"For the benefit of women who suffer as I have done I wish to state what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had some [illegible] caused a displacement. I have always been [illegible] after my baby was born and [illegible] tration, from which I did not recover [illegible] ham's Vegetable Compound. [illegible] when I hear of a woman with trouble [illegible] to take your medicine." Mrs. S. T. Richmond, [illegible] Providence, R. I.

A Minister's Wife Writes:

Cloquet, Mass.—"I have suffered [illegible] pain and inflammation, but your wonderful [illegible] ham's Vegetable Compound, has made [illegible] the same to all that are troubled with [illegible] Akerman, c/o Rev. E. Akerman, [illegible]

From Mrs. J. D. Murdoch, Quincy, Mass.

South Quincy, Mass.—"[illegible] and he doctored me for a long time [illegible] saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and I tried it and found relief [illegible] finished the first bottle. [illegible] through middle life and am now a [illegible] woman and earn my own living." Mrs. Jennie D. Murdoch, 25 Garden St., South Quincy, Mass.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

There is nothing we can say which will convince you why you should buy a diamond of us. Diamonds are sold through confidence—nothing else. You know little of the comparative diamond values and must rely on your jeweler.

We can sell you as cheap as any jeweler can, and possibly give you better value for your money than others because we are in position to buy for cash from the cutters which gives us an advantage in price.

Some day we'll sell you diamonds and when we do we'll both be better satisfied.

Columbus Authorities Take Auto Thieves

Detectives J. J. Crosdon and H. B. Carson, of the Columbus police department, arrived in Portsmouth at midnight Wednesday, prepared to take in custody Richard Linely and Harry Williams, alleged automobile thieves, who were arrested by the local police Wednesday afternoon on suspicion of having stolen an automobile belonging to A. Bringardner, of Columbus, late Monday evening.

The two alleged thieves were turned over to the Columbus officers by Chief McCarty Thursday. Both of them were recognized by the Capital City sleuths as men who had served time in that city for petty offenses.

Linely and Williams stick to their original story that they bought the car from a man in Columbus Monday evening for $200, but the Columbus officers place but little credence in their story. They expect both of them to make a clean breast of their guilt after they are put through a mild third degree in the Columbus station.

Detectives Crosdon and Carson were accompanied to this city by A. Bringardner, the owner of the machine, who recovered his property. The machine was kept in Mayor Frick's private garage over night for safekeeping, where Bringardner secured possession of it Thursday morning. It was in practically as good condition as when it was stolen.

[illegible] morning that the machine was stolen about 7:30 o'clock, at the corner of High and Town streets, where he had left it standing while he went into a nearby building. Five minutes later, when he returned, the machine was gone. He was overjoyed to regain possession of it so soon, and complimented the local police department highly for the efficient work performed.

The return trip to Columbus was started about ten o'clock Thursday morning in Bringardner's machine, the prisoners being closely guarded by the two officers. Before leaving Detective Crosdon complimented Chief McCarty for the splendid capture, and intimated that the arresting officers, Chief McCarty and Officer Cooper, would receive a substantial reward.

Linely, who is regarded as the real thief, was in Portsmouth three weeks ago with the Carnival company that exhibited on the West End mill lot. He managed a cane rack. The local police cling to the theory that it was he who stole the Charles Hard machine, as the theft was committed the night after the Carnival company was supposed to have left the city. The Columbus officers promised to use every effort to induce him to confess and to state what disposition was made of the machine.

Bringardner's car is the third stolen automobile that has been recovered by the local police department during the past month. In [illegible] were recovered and turned over to the proper authorities.

How to Destroy the Dandruff Germ

BY A SPECIALIST

That the dandruff germ is responsible for nearly all the diseases to which the scalp is heir, as well as for baldness and premature gray hair, is a well known fact, but when we realize that it is also indirectly responsible for many other diseases as well, we appreciate the importance of any agent that will destroy its power. We are therefore, particularly pleased to give herewith the prescription which an eminent scientist states he has found after repeated tests, to completely destroy the dandruff germ in from one to three applications. It will also almost immediately stop falling hair and it has in numerous cases produced a new hair-growth after years of partial baldness. This prescription can be made up at home, or any druggist will put it up for you: 6 ounces Bay Rum, 2 ounces Lavona de Composee, one-half drachm Menthol Crystals. Mix thoroughly, and after standing an hour it is ready for use. Apply night and morning, rubbing into the scalp with the finger-tips. If you wish it perfumed, add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. While this preparation is not a dye it is [illegible] restoring [illegible] hair to its original color. adv

Was 43 Today

From a season of [illegible] high temperatures to unseasonably cool September weather was but a step.

Just a few days ago the mercury touched the [illegible] mark with the facility that some people negotiate a loan. Thursday morning was so chilly around the edges that [illegible] slid down to 43, which is exceptionally cool for so early in September. It is probable that light frosts will be reported from various parts of the county.

ANNUAL REPORT SHOWS INCREASE IN SCIOTO COUNTY OWNED CATTLE

County Auditor Patterson is in receipt of a tabular statement from A. V. Donahey, auditor of state, showing the number of horses, cattle, mules, etc., in each county of the state, the figures being taken from the annual reports of the county auditors for the years 1913 and 1914 as required by law.

The figures for Scioto county are:

| | 1913 | 1914 |
|---|---|---|
| Horses | 5,850 | [illegible] |
| Cattle | [illegible] | [illegible] |
| Mules | [illegible] | [illegible] |
| Sheep | 1013 | 1012 |
| Hogs | [illegible] | [illegible] |

The decrease in the number of sheep is not confined to [illegible] county, but is general all over the state. There is a marked increase in the number of horses, cattle, mules and hogs [illegible] the state, the increase being as follows: horses, [illegible] cattle, [illegible] mules, [illegible] hogs, [illegible]. The [illegible] sheep [illegible].

Gallstone Disease Cured Without Cutting

Persons suffering from gallstones have attacks of excruciating pain at times, gall stones, colic and the agony of such an attack is known only to those poor sufferers.

Unless immediate relief is obtained, the patient feels that he will surely die. To relieve this awful pain an opiate is usually given. It does not cure, but is intended only as a relief. The pain is caused by the passage of a stone through the gall duct into the duodenum.

The best treatment for gallstones is the dissolvent treatment, not the knife, as this does not remove the cause. However, there are some cases where it is necessary to first cut out the stone. When it has grown to a large size, neglected long, and a sufferer with a large gallstone is in danger of losing his life, if not speedily relieved.

The new United treatment for gall stone disease is founded upon science. The treatment is not an operation, but is composed of mild, herbal medicines, compounded by the Bi-Chemic Doctors, in their own laboratory. They do not use any olive oil nor any opium in their treatment for the cure of gallstone disease, and by means of their medicines for this disease the stone formations are frequently broken up, dissolved and eliminated from the system without pain.

Taken in time, most any case of gallstones is curable, say the Bi-Chemic Doctors, and a cure is often possible without resorting to the knife.

In their extensive practice the Bi-Chemic Doctors treat many cases of gallstones. They have some patients who have taken opiates to such an extent as to produce the opium habit. No more pitiful state can be imagined than a man or woman addicted to the morphine or opium habit.

The Bi-Chemic Doctors always treat this terrible habit when present along with the gallstone disease. The Portsmouth Institute of the Bi-Chemic Doctors is located on the third floor of the Masonic Temple, where they invite all sufferers from gallstones to call and be examined free of charge, and get an opinion of their case.

These great specialists will be glad to explain their methods of treatment to any one who is a sufferer who call upon them, and they will probably save all such pain and risk of surgical operations if the disease is not neglected too long.

They do not treat any incurable case of any kind, whatsoever, but no chronic sufferer, no matter what the trouble, should give up hope until he or she has paid a visit to the Bi-Chemic Doctors. Many cases which old methods failed to even benefit, are cured by the new and more scientific system used by the Bi-Chemic Doctors.

If a sufferer from gallstones, or from any other deep seated or chronic, nervous, blood, skin, stomach, liver, kidney or bowel disease, you should lose no time in applying to the Bi-Chemic Doctors at their permanent Portsmouth Institute. They will tell you at the first interview just what they think can be done in your case. Consultation is free and confidential. adv

The 22nd annual reunion of the 174th Regiment O. V. I., will be held at the Star Hotel, North High street, Columbus, Ohio, on Wednesday, September 23.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Tillie Coe Peiffer

Mrs. Tillie Coe Peiffer who passed away at her home in Columbus Wednesday, was well known in this city. The deceased was 28 years of age at the time of death and moved to Columbus seven years ago with her parents, Mr. Alfred and Alice H. Coe. Two years ago she was united in marriage to Charles O. Peiffer. Death was caused by a blood clot on the brain. Mrs. Peiffer had been suffering with pains in her head for sometime and the news of her death was expected.

Mrs. Peiffer's father died about ten years ago and he was laid to rest in Greenlawn cemetery. One brother, John Walter, has preceded Mrs. Peiffer to the grave. Besides her husband she leaves a mother, four brothers, George, Arthur, Allen and Kenneth, all of Columbus, three sisters, Mrs. Margaret Buller of Columbus, Mrs. Pearl Cole of Rome, Ohio, and Dorothy Coe at home to mourn her death. The deceased was a member of the First Christian church while in this city and has been a member of the First Christian church of Columbus. She was also a member of the Columbus A. L. U., and Big Sisters, another Columbus order.

She had made many friends during her short visits to this city and they will be sorry to learn of the death. Mrs. Peiffer was ever willing to help whenever she could, no task being too large. She had always been a kind and loving wife and will be sadly missed in her wide circle of acquaintances.

The body will be brought to this city Friday morning, short funeral services being held at Pfeiffer's morgue and at the cemetery. Rev. T. H. McAfee will have charge of the last rites.

Andrew Purteo

Andrew Purteo was born July 21, 1840 in Bloom township near South Webster and died August 16, 1914, aged 74 years and 26 days. In 1867 he was united in marriage to Margaret K. McGee. To this union were born four children, two of which died in infancy. The others are Mrs. New[illegible] [illegible] and Miss Frances Purteo of Gallipolis.

His first wife having died he was again united in marriage to Mrs. Mary A. Conklin whose maiden name was Mea[illegible]. To them were born two children, [illegible] A. Purteo of [illegible] Meadow, Ohio, and Mrs. Bennett H. Kayser, of Summit street, Portsmouth, Ohio. He enlisted in the United States army July 16, 1861 as private under Captain John D. W[illegible] and was discharged Dec. 2[illegible], 1863 at Prospect, Tenn. and was again enrolled [illegible] as corporal under Captain Oscar A. Carr and was [illegible] July 9, 1865 at L[illegible], Ky.

He was converted over forty years ago and joined the Methodist church at Harrison Mills and in 1869 he was transferred to the United Brethren church, which was organized there by Rev. C. B. Tuttle.

Later on he moved to Portsmouth and joined the Manly Methodist church, remaining a member until his death.

Whether he was faithful or not can best be proven by friends and associates that knew him. The members of the family desire to thank the neighbors and friends for their kindness during his sickness and death, also to Rev. Lucian Lovett, who had charge of the funeral and Rev. Gilliland who assisted him, Undertaker William Osmeyer, and the G. A. R. Post of Scioto, Ohio. The following verses were composed by his daughter Frances of Gallipolis:

Dear father we are left forlorn,
Upon this earth to dwell,
Still we must trust to Him above
Who doeth all things well.

And though the home is sad indeed
Without your loving voice,
We know the Lord has called you home
Forever to rejoice.

Tho' sad the thought we must sedan
Unto the Holy One,
So let us strive with Him to dwell
When life on earth is done.

Oh, when life's toilsome race is run,
We're laid beneath the sod,
Shall we not strive to enter in
The Kingdom of our God.

There where no farewell tears are shed,
Nor sorrow ere can come
O, let us try to enter in
That bright celestial home.

So when our Savior calls us
When our task on earth is o'er
Shall we not listen to His voice
"Enter and sin no more."

Farewell but not forever,
For we must surely meet
Where all is joy and peace and love
And happiness complete.

... fortunate impediment in his speech, but he had made troops of friends wherever he went.

"He fell in love with Anaheim and its people from the first. This is illustrated in the incident that probably hastened his death. Against the importunity of his family and the advice of his doctor he made the trip from Newport Beach to Anaheim and back on August 25 in order to cast his vote at the primary election. He said: 'I shall never as long as I live go back on the friends that have stuck to me through thick and thin. I deem it the bounden duty of every citizen in behalf of his locality and state and country, to cast his vote if he be able to stand on his legs.' He did cast his vote, though he had almost [illegible] to the polling place.

"He went to sleep very peacefully. His body will be cremated as he desired, and his ashes carried back to the farm in Pennsylvania where he spent the greater part of his childhood at the home of a grandfather, whom he revered."

Mrs. Nettie Scott Pugh

The last wish of Mrs. Nettie Scott Pugh, aged 33 years, was gratified when she died at the family home No. 1014 Chillicothe street, Wednesday night at 10 o'clock.

Lynn's ambulance had brought Mrs. Pugh and baby from her own home on Lick Run to the home of her father, Thomas M. Scott, only Wednesday afternoon. She was fully conscious of the fact that she could not survive but a few hours, and at her earnest request, was brought to Portsmouth. She remained conscious up to the very last.

Mrs. Pugh died of heart disease, complicated by pneumonia with which she had suffered for some time. A sad feature was the fact that her husband and remaining children were unable to be at her bedside when the end came. Mr. Pugh having gone to Haverhill to place his children in the temporary custody of relatives.

Mrs. Pugh was born near Haverhill and would have been 34 years of age Thursday. She was married [illegible] years ago to Mr. Pugh who survives with the following four children: Edwin aged 10 years, [illegible] aged 7 years, Lyda, aged [illegible] [illegible]. ## View of City Destroyed by Germans and Reservists Answering Second Call [illegible] picture above shows the [illegible] town of Dinant [illegible] is reported to have been [illegible] German troops after [illegible] of its inhabitants were [illegible] the action of the German troops was taken on the ground that shots had been fired into the German ranks from the heights overlooking the city. Dinant, [illegible] had a population of 8,000 [illegible] dated back to the sixth century. It has frequently been the scene of warfare. The lower picture shows German reservists responding to the Kaiser's second call for troops. This is the most recent picture to be received from the German capital.

GERMAN RIGHT WING RETREATS; FIGHTING FURIOUS ALONG LINE

(By Franklin T. Merrick)

Paris, Sept. 10.—The right wing of the German army of invasion is still in retreat. Desperate fighting still marks the battle along the center, where the concentrated forces of the Germans are making a determined stand to hold that position.

This information, given out today by the French military governor of Paris, presented the outstanding feature of the mighty conflict which is still raging from Paris to the eastern border.

There is furious fighting over a 63 miles line in the center; while along the balance of the battle front at least 100 miles in length, there is skirmishing artillery duelling and maneuvering.

The stiffening of the defense along the northwest flank of the German army indicates that it has received fresh support.

The Germans are reported to have evacuated Luneville, 15 miles southeast of Nancy, owing to the seizure of strategic positions by the French but this report lacks official confirmation.

The French war office states that the situation is satisfactory. Attempts of the Germans to take the offensive against the French lines northeast of Paris has failed, the war office announced. The Germans were compelled to fall back, losing two standards.

According to the French government the front of the German army is now 25 miles farther away from Paris than it was five days ago.

From trustworthy sources it is reported that the allies have cut part of the German line of communication in the east and the French military authorities hope that the allies will soon be able to drive the invaders back upon the ammunition and supplies column.

Wounded soldiers brought to Paris say there is a report that the Germans lack both provisions and ammunition.

Pessimist Evers Doesn't Expect Braves To Grab Pennant

Johnny Evers, in anything but a pessimistic mood

"The Boston Braves are not of championship calibre, though I'm convinced that they'll beat out the Giants. The team I expect to capture the pennant is the Cubs." These are the sentiments of Johnny Evers, captain of the Boston Nationals. "The Cubs are not winning as they should," says Evers. "They have five good pitchers and a good player at every station. All the Braves have is three good pitchers and lots of snap and dash. This combination cannot be expected to win the flag." As to whether the Braves have "cracked" after walking up and looking at first place, Evers had no comment to make. His pessimism is blamed on the stomach trouble he has been suffering, by his teammates.

Inquiries Plentiful

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 10. The Iron Trade Review today says: Additional inquiries are being received for various kinds of iron and steel products from countries which usually obtain their supplies from countries now at war. Inquiries are, however, developing into orders very slowly, and with the exception of tonnages booked by The United States Steel Corporation, orders which have come to American mills as the result of the great war are not important. The tightness of the money market is curtailing domestic operations and the market is very quiet at the present time. The pig iron production last month shows an increase of 41,159 tons compared with July, due entirely to the gain made by the steel works or non-merchant furnaces, as there was a loss in the output of merchant iron. The total production for August was 1,996,183 tons.

HOW TO GAIN WEIGHT A POUND A DAY

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "stay there" fat should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good test worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel, or what your friends say and think. The scales and the tape measure will tell their own story, and [illegible] man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays put.

Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mixing with your food, it turns [illegible] you have eaten into rich, ripe, fat [illegible] for the tissues and blood, prepares it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] increase or money back.

German Chancellor Offers His Resignation

Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg

Rome, Sept. 10. Following a serious split between the Kaiser and his advisers, Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg has resigned, according to a Berlin dispatch to the "Messaggero." The chancellor's action was followed by the handing in the resignation of Minister of Foreign Affairs von Jagow. The Kaiser regarded the two ministers as being responsible for the unreadiness of German diplomacy, which led to the coalition of European powers against Germany. With two of the most distinguished diplomatists out of his cabinet the Kaiser faces a serious situation. He is now practically the only man at the helm.

LOCALS HAD EASY TIME WITH CHILLY CHAMPS

Tedrow The Master, McIlvaine Hit Hard, Emery The Slugger

(By F. W. Sheridan)

In a game that had about as much life to it as a Quaker camp meeting, those noble second place-ers of ours slipped one over on the benming Babes of Chillicothe Wednesday afternoon at Millbrook Park by the score of 8 to 1, the final tap finding the fans hovering together like so many quail in a wheat stubble to keep from freezing to death. Possibly the Arctic weather had something to do with the listlessness of the game, for it was played through nine innings the coherts [illegible] about as much noise as a bit of salted mackerel. The result of the pastiming was never in doubt after the first inning when "Skip" Crouch clouted the [illegible] The locals seemed to know that they had a cinch when Umpire Bierhalter announced that McIlvaine would do the hurling for the visitors. The [illegible] lank chap has often tried to down the locals on their own [illegible] while he has succeeded now and then, nevertheless the edge is against him and he knows well that he has his work cut out for him when facing the Chiefs' crew. He allowed fifteen solid knocks, which without much [illegible] netted the locals [illegible] runs. It must be said here, however, that Mac did not have the proper support, his team mates spilling four large errors behind him. With air-tight support he probably would have [illegible] much tighter game.

Opposed to McIlvaine was Mr. Tedrow, Westerville citizen, who hurls from the off side of the [illegible] and who did what he pleased with the visitors until the locals had seared up a comfortable lead for him to work on. After that he was not particular if the Champs did score now and then, and was quite liberal with base hits, yielding nine, the most he has allowed for some time. Had [illegible] been necessary, Ted would doubtless have cut this allotment in half. As it was he fanned six men and walked but two, showing that he had on [illegible] control over that old agate. He also helped himself to a couple of base knocks that make pretty nice ornamentation opposite his name.

The locals hit with considerable viciousness, especially Emery, who cut in on the melon for three juicy drives, one being a double, a pointed blow to left. Baggan was right there with a couple, while Crouch and Dillhoefer secured two each. Jimmy Edwards, while he hit the ball fast on the [illegible], could not get the [illegible] thing in unguarded territory and went hitless for the day. Sir Edward Goosetree was there with a couple of [illegible] one of which was a double. Cornwell and Hickey had to be satisfied with one each, although the latter came through with a couple of sacrifices, one of which counted for a run.

Outside of Nesser and Friend, the Babes had a hard time getting next to Tedrow, the former garnering three blows, while Friend won since [illegible] a couple, one of which was the longest swat of the day, a triple to right center. The locals fielded in big league style, having a scare that a slip up did not [illegible] their chance at the flag. The boys still think they have a good chance [illegible] that their former comrade [illegible] Hartwig will [illegible] into the S[illegible] of time. Hence [illegible] to duty.

The locals [illegible] with a run after two [illegible] out. Crouch, who looks [illegible] with [illegible] home like a [illegible]. Hickey [illegible] [illegible] of Talbot, [illegible] prop.

Boston Halved Double Header While Brooklyn Beat Giants

The battling Braves refuse to yield an inch of ground to their hated rivals, the New York Giants. While the McGraw clan was decisively beaten by Brooklyn Wednesday, Boston halved a double-header with the Phillies, thereby gaining half a game on the Giants. New York lost to Brooklyn 8 to 3 and the Phils beat Boston 10 to 3 and the Braves came back and handed the Dooin Quakers a 7 to 0 beating, Davis pitching a no-hit game.

It begins to look like the Braves are going to battle the Giants down to the last ditch. Many well-posted fans thought their defense would crumble before this, but the Boston players are so confident that they will eventually win out that they are sweeping everything before them in their onward rush. Evers, Maranville, Gowdy, Connolly and Schmidt are playing wonderful ball. The team is splendidly balanced, has developed a great scoring machine, and with Rudolph, Tyler and James hurling championship ball the Braves have a better chance hauling in the bunting than the quivering Giants. McGraw is having a hard time holding his team down. The players seem to be going around every curve. The players are under a great strain and are not toeing the scratch with any confidence. Unless Matty and Tesreau can come through with two victories a week the New York club will be beaten out by the Braves and possibly the climbing, clawing and coming Cubblets.

[illegible]

(By Frank G. Menke)

New York, Sept. 10. Down in Wall street there are some folks who are willing now to bet 3 to 1 that the Athletics win the world series, no matter who their opponents happen to be.

If the Giants oppose the Athletics it seems to us that the long end betters have a good chance of collecting. The Athletics, as previously pointed out, seem to have the Giants stuffed. The Giants have been beaten so often by the Athletics that it's become a habit with them to take a beating.

The Athletics outclass the Giants this year in every department of the game. Their pitching staff seems far stronger and more reliable, their catching staff is steady and can hit, their infield so far overshadows the Giants that there's no comparison, and even in the outfield the Philadelphians have a big edge.

Added to all this is the biggest factor in favor of the Athletics—they seem to have the number of the Giants.

But, if the Athletics go against either the Braves, Cards or Cubs, there might be a different story to tell when reviewing the results of the 1914 world series. None of the three teams mentioned is any stronger than the Giants, but they would go into battle with a different spirit than the Giants. There wouldn't be that feeling akin to fear, and, furthermore, the Athletics who are so familiar with the offensive and defensive tactics of the Giants would be up against a different proposition if they had to face another team.

The Athletics have batted against Mathewson, Marquard, Tesreau and Demaree. They know that they can hit those twisters and straight ones for homers. They are confident that the pitching of the Giant quartette cannot deceive them.

But if they had to bat against James, Tyler and Rudolph, of the Braves, or the first string pitchers of the Cubs or Cards it would be a different proposition altogether. They don't know what those pitchers would offer in a pinch. They don't know just what each has in his repertoire. They would have to learn during the series. They would not have previous knowledge as they would have if the Giants were their foes.

It's the same thing with the Athletic pitchers. They know from past experience just the kind of balls the Giants can hit and the kind they can't hit. But if they were pitted against another team it would be a different proposition. They would have to "feel out" the batters, and during the "feeling out" process they might get "stepped" for a few base hits that would spell disaster for the winning chances of the club.

The Athletic outfielders know pretty well where to play for drives from the Giant clubbers. But they don't know exactly where to play for the hitters on the other clubs.

If the Giants do battle the Athletics, the 3 to 1 odds seem fair. But if the Athletics have to cross bats with some other National League club, the long-end betters, in our opinion, are taking chances that are a bit too long, even though the Athletics out-class every one of the four teams that have been fighting it out for the National League pennant.

Arundel Umpiring And Senators Won, Why Shouldn't They

Charleston defeated Lexington yesterday, 2 to 0, through the good pitching of Sims, who held the Colts to one scratch hit. Hanna, who toiled for the Colts, allowed but three hits, one of which was a triple propelled from the bat of Orlando Keller, who whacked the first ball twirled for a triple, scoring a minute later on Natter's sacrifice fly. The game was played at Charleston and Arundel held the indicator. His majesty is being called all sorts of [illegible] names by the Charleston scribes, who are worshiping at his shrine. He called Homer Cam[illegible] out on a third strike when the bat[illegible] had started to first base [illegible] ing that he had secured a base on balls. Sims slipped one over and Arundel allowed it although it was twenty feet down the [illegible]. Arundel is liable to do any[illegible] thing now that he is in the land of his friends. He would not have thought of doing such a thing at any other time, but he's back where the going is good and it will occasion no surprise should he break all records in giving decisions. You know the fates have decreed that the Senators win that flag, how fortunate indeed that Arundel is working for them. They might not win if an arbitrator of Bierhalter calibre and fairness was on the job—the Colts would get what was coming to them. The box score of yesterday's game follows:

Thrown Down By Red Sox, Yerkes Joins Feds

Steve Yerkes in his Red Sox Uniform

Baltimore, Sept. 10. Unconditionally released by the Red Sox a little over a week ago, Steve Yerkes has been signed for a term of years by the Pittsburgh Club of the Federal league. Yerkes made a canvass of the big league clubs in the hope that some smart manager would sign him but, after having thanked him for having offered his services, all of the major league managers gave him the cold shoulder. Manager Oakes thinks he has a prize in Yerkes. The Ex-Red Sox will join the Pittsfeds here and will take Holly's place at short, while the latter moves to the bench.

JOHN DOUGH MAKES HIS DEBUT IN PORTSMOUTH

With this issue of the paper the readers of the Times are introduced to John Dough, the imperial head of the bread world. Once each week for the next ten weeks, John Dough will be allotted a section of the paper. It is an advertising campaign in which the Times is assisting to stimulate the sale of bread.

John Dough gets everybody interested in bread. The baker and the consumer is bound to derive benefits from his appearance. The Fleischmann company, manufacturers of yeast and furnishing practically every bakery in the city with this essential ingredient, is carrying upon an extensive advertising campaign in this territory. This advertising is broadly planned chiefly as an educational campaign to acquaint the public with the benefits of [illegible]. To give this a boost [illegible] the Fleischmann company has invited [illegible] local enterprising bakers, ever wide awake to business opportunities, have taken advantage [illegible] and supplement the John Dough advertisement with their own original ads.

have some splendid inducements and it will pay any one to follow them closely.

Portsmouth, it can be said, has the most modern and sanitary bakeries in the state. [illegible] bread that is a credit to any city. All the plants are modernly equipped. From the time [illegible] prepared for baking until [illegible] placed in the hands of the consumer it is modernly and sanitarily handled. Each baker has his own brand of bread. It is with pride that the Times points to the special brands of bread and can recommend them to the consumers. A visit to the bakeries will convince any one that Portsmouth and surrounding territory is receiving the best bread and the finest [illegible]. Look over the advertisements tonight, read them closely, and [illegible] In fact it will pay [illegible] John Dough.

FINANCIERS BRING PRESSURE ON NATIONS TO END GREAT WAR

(By Frederick Werner)

Berlin (via Amsterdam), Sept. [illegible]—Financiers who control the [illegible] markets of the world are [illegible]ing to bring a speedy end [illegible] European war.

[illegible] are exerting pressure in [illegible] capitals. Whether they [illegible] successful is still problem[illegible], but semi-official re[illegible]s have been current here for [illegible] days that Germany would be [illegible]ing to listen in the near fu[illegible] to proposals for mediation, [illegible]ded her opponents would [illegible] accept such proposals.

[illegible] can be stated that the Ger[illegible] position is this:

[illegible] offensive campaign [illegible]st the French and British [illegible]en successful, the defensive [illegible]gn in eastern Prussia, [illegible]ding offensive movement [illegible] planned, has been suc[illegible] in repelling the Russians. [illegible] German troops have been [illegible]ssful in their invasion of [illegible] Poland.

[illegible]refore, Germany feels that [illegible] position is such that Great [illegible], France and Russia should [illegible] the first approached with [illegible] proposals from a neu[illegible].

When they have acted on such [illegible]sals Germany will decide [illegible] course she will follow. The [illegible]ation made at the beginning [illegible] war that Germany had been [illegible] to defend herself is con[illegible] repeated here.

[illegible]tically no news is being [illegible] out here as to the campaign [illegible] armies of Austria and Rus[illegible]. It is known that Austria has [illegible] given German reinforcements, [illegible] what number has not been [illegible].

Evidence Against Couple Caught In Raid; Police News

Acting upon complaint of neighbors, police officers entered the Lewis Arthurs home on Front street about 1:30 o'clock Thursday morning, and placed under arrest Arthurs and Anna Rolans, a married woman from Monroe, Ohio, who was spending the night at Arthurs' home. They were brought to the station and locked up, charges of disorderly conduct having been lodged against them.

Officers reported to the chief that they found several hair combs in the bed occupied by Arthurs, and that the woman's shoes and stockings were found in the same room. The woman, however, was lying on the foot of the bed in the adjoining room occupied by Arthurs' three children, using her dress for a covering, according to the officers. They claimed that they spent considerable time effecting an entrance to the house.

The mayor held that the circumstances as related by the report of the officers and the evidence of neighbors established their guilt on charges of disorderly conduct, and fined each of them $25 and costs. He also warned Arthurs that if he persisted in keeping women about his house in the future, he could expect similar treatment in police court again. Numerous reports have been registered with the police department concerning the Arthurs home.

The "work gang" was increased to the number of four Thursday morning when the mayor committed four offenders who were unable to pay their fines to jail. They were Herman Reiley, William Boyle, and August Steffley, three men apprehended "sleeping" in an N. & W. coach in the East End yards and Andy Featherstone, a plain drunk arrested during the night. They were fined $5 each.

George Jackson, colored, was arraigned in police court Thursday morning on the charge of stealing $2.20 from the pocket of William Dalton, also colored. The theft was committed late Monday night in a house on [illegible] street, where both men have been rooming together. Jackson secured his liberty by agreeing to return $2.20 to Dalton, and the costs of prosecution. [illegible] steadfastly maintained his innocence.

Mallory Hats

In An Emergency-

How quick you jump is not so important as how safe you light.

Men all over town are up against the hat problem today. Straw hats are deader than a door nail, and hundreds of hats will be bought quickly tomorrow and Saturday.

Over East they have a habit of calling "Watch your step!" when getting on and off the subway. It's a pretty good motto for you to heed in buying a new hat. How soon you get a hat is not so important to you as how good a hat you can get for the money.

If we weren't sure we had the best for the money, we'd keep quiet on this sort of advice.

Mallory hats have been made for ninety years. That'll do for Mr. Quality. Mallory hats come in every good shape and shade. That will hold Mr. Style. Mallory hats sell for $3.00, derbies or soft. That will hold Mr. Price.

If this were all we could say for Mallory hats you could put the names of all the hat stores in town in a hat, shake them up and select one name blindfolded, buy at that store and run just as good chances of getting a good hat as though you came to Anderson's.

But hold on! There's a dark horse in the race, [illegible] a Mallory hat. Besides being on a par with all other BEST hats, it goes one step farther. It is cravenetted. That means that the sun and the rain have no effect upon it. The rain can't spot it nor the sun fade it. A season's wear will hardly show on it. Stop and think a minute of the advantages of a cravenetted hat. It costs not a cent more than any other [illegible]

It's time to get a new Hat.

UNFAITHFULNESS IS ALLEGED BY THREE

Three suits for divorce were dumped into the hopper at the county clerk's office Thursday morning, the husbands being the plaintiffs in two of the cases, and the wife in the third. Unfaithfulness to the vows taken at the marriage altar were alleged in each case.

Frank Mahan charges his wife with adultery with one Harry [illegible] in his petition, filed by Attorney George W. Sheppard, and asks the court to grant him a legal separation on that ground. The couple were married in November, 1912, in this city, and have no children.

Adultery is also alleged in the petition of Howard A. Dyke, filed by Attorney A. T. Holcomb, the plaintiff charging that his wife, [illegible] E. Dyke, committed adultery with one Blair P. Wilson of [illegible]ington, W. Va., on January [illegible] 1913, and with divers other men at divers times and places. They were married March 16, [illegible] at Fairmont, W. Va., and have no children.

In addition to a charge of adultery, Minnie Harlan seeks a divorce from her husband, Earl Harlan, on the grounds of extreme cruelty and gross neglect of duty. She alleges that her husband deserted her in March, 1911, when their babe, now deceased, was seriously ill, and left her to the support of her relatives and friends. She also claims that he neglected to contribute to her support or that of the child while it was living, and that he left her with numerous debts to discharge. She also accuses him of intimacy with various women unknown to her.

The couple were married October 27, 1906, at Ironton, Ohio, and one child was born to the union, which died during May last at the age of four years. S. R. Gilliland is Mrs. Harlan's attorney.

War Has No Effect On Wild West Show

Advertising Car No. 2 of Miller Bros. and Arlington's 101 Ranch Wild West Show, is in the city today, and a small army of bill posters and other advertising men have been busy heralding the coming of this big Western exhibition.

"There seems to be a great deal of curiosity as to the effect of the European war on the business of the tent shows," said W. D. Coxey, one of the representatives of the show, this morning. "This is natural, for all kinds and conditions of men are wondering just what the ultimate effect upon the industries of the country will be, and it is generally recognized that amusements are among the first things to feel the effect of hard times or of any world crisis [illegible] markets of the principal countries.

"It is an interesting fact that up to the present time the war has had no appreciable effect upon the business of the 101 Ranch. As a matter of fact, and this may be merely a coincidence, our best business of the season has been done since the war opened, and I believe this is true of every important tent show in the country.

"One reason for the improvement in business is the better feeling among the farmers. The basis of the tent shows' prosperity is the farmer. When he suffers from low prices and poor crops the circus man suffers. Just now the farmer, owing to bumper crops and good prices, is feeling good. You can't make him believe that his wheat won't get across the ocean, and he is celebrating the fact by spending his money. That is made clearly evident by the 101 Ranch show, which comes to Portsmouth next Wednesday, September [illegible], doing a big business and it is said that its contemporaries are also sharing in this prosperity."

FOOD FACTS

What An M. D. Learned

A prominent Georgia physician went through a food experience which he makes public:

"It was my own experience that first led me to advocate Grape-Nuts food and I also know, from having prescribed it to convalescents and other weak patients, that the food is a wonderful rebuilder and restorer of nerve and brain tissue, as well as muscle. It improves the digestion and sick patients gain very rapidly, just as I did in strength and weight.

"I was in such a low state that I had to give up my work entirely, and went to the mountains of this state, but two months there did not improve me; in fact, I was not quite as well as when I left home.

"My food did not sustain me and it became plain that I must change. Then I began to use Grape-Nuts food and in two weeks I could walk a mile without the least fatigue. [illegible] weeks returned to my home and practice, taking up hard work again. Since that time I have felt as well and strong as I ever did in my life.

BLAIR-MAYOR MIXUP IS NOW UP TO JUDGE

Nothing new developed Thursday in the Judge Blair-Mayor Frick imbroglio over the Cope cases heard in the latter's court last Tuesday morning, and there will be no new developments until the return of Judge Thomas, who will be called upon to pass upon the mandamus suit instituted by Judge Blair Wednesday to compel the mayor to deliver a transcript of the proceedings in his court to the defendants' counsel and sign the bill of exceptions. The attorney is desirous of entering a petition in error in the common pleas court, and is prevented from so doing by the mayor's refusal.

Sheriff Eckhart served the injunction papers on the mayor Wednesday evening which restrains him temporarily from enforcing provisions of the sentence imposed on Mr. and Mrs. Cope Tuesday morning, when they were fined $100 each after conviction on the charge of renting rooms for immoral purposes.

The mayor, in discussing the matter Thursday morning, said: "I am glad the mandamus suit was filed, for it will show to the people of Portsmouth under what difficulties the police department works in enforcing the city ordinances prohibiting misdemeanors of all kinds. People who should be back of the efforts of the department to rid the city of undesirable places are throwing every handicap they can in the way of the administration of justice.

"Judge Blair was not such a believer in jury trials, in liquor and bawdy house cases when he occupied the bench in the common pleas court, and I took my cue from him. At that, I am not as strict as he was, for he fined the offenders $200 and costs, while I let off the defendants in question with fines of $100 each."

"All I am looking for in Mayor Frick's court is a square deal," said Judge Blair, Thursday in discussing his controversy with the mayor.

"I am simply holding out for the rights of my clients. Wherever the ordinance reads that a man may be fined or imprisoned on an offense it is within his attorney's rights to demand a jury trial. This interpretation of the law is correct, but Mayor Frick will not heed it. Under such cases an attorney is permitted to ask for a jury trial," continued Judge Blair.

"I don't want to be arbitrary or assume a hostile attitude against the mayor, who I am sure is actuated by conscientious motives. He has misinterpreted the law. That is all there is to our little tilt. I have no feeling in the matter whatever. Mayor Frick is wrong when he refuses to grant a prisoner a jury trial when his alleged offense comes under an ordinance which provides that if his guilt is established he may be fined or sent to prison," concluded Judge Blair.

GOOD SUGGESTION TO PORTSMOUTH PEOPLE

It is surprising the amount of old foul matter the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-i-ka, drains from the system. This remedy became famous by curing appendicitis and acts on BOTH the upper and lower bowels so that ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation almost IMMEDIATELY. We are mighty glad we are Portsmouth agents for Adler-i-ka. Worster Bros., Druggists, 439 Chillicothe St.
